| (For every 10,000members or part thereofbeyond this number,1 additional delegate) | (16 or more)                      |

- (b) All ordinary affiliates which are paying less than the standard rate of affiliation fee with the approval of the Central Committee and which are not suspended from affiliation under clause (x) of Article 4 shall be entitled to be represented at any Delegates' Conference by not more than half the total number of elected delegates the respective affiliates would have if they had been so entitled to have under paragraph (a) of this clause.

- (ii) An affiliate which fails to pay the standard rate of affiliation fee on the expiry of one year of such reduced representation as determined under clause (i)(b) of this Article may have its affiliation to the Congress suspended for such period of not more than six months as the Central Committee may decide at its absolute discretion and thereafter shall be liable to expulsion from the Congress unless the Central Committee expressly decides otherwise at its absolute discretion.

- (iii) If the Central Committee is satisfied with the extenuating circumstances for the inability of an ordinary affiliate to pay the standard rate of affiliation fee, the Central Committee may at its absolute discretion accord to an ordinary affiliate the right of full or partial representation at any Delegates' Conference without the payment of the standard rate of affiliation fee notwithstanding any other provisions in this rule to the contrary.

ARTICLE 9 Delegates' Conference:

- (i) The supreme authority of the Congress shall be the Delegates' Conference which shall take the form of a National, Ordinary or Extraordinary Conference. A National Delegates' Conference shall be held once every four years by the 31st December of the particular year. In between the National Delegates' Conference there shall be held an Ordinary Delegates' Conference which shall be held two years after the last preceding National Delegates' Conference. All Extraordinary Delegates' Conferences may be convened on the written request of not less than 50 percent of the affiliates or on the direction of the Central Committee. The Extraordinary Conference shall be held not later than one month from the date of the decision of the Central Committee to hold such a Conference or two months from the date of the receipt by
